

Dear Friends,

I am delighted to introduce FLUIDITY - a Creative Choral Community for a Cause! We are a brand new choral group in Cincinnati that was formed to express ourselves through singing while supporting a cause.

Fluidity, a Creative Choral Community for a Cause, will hold event-concerts to raise funds to benefit partner non-profit organizations. We think of ourselves as creative doers supporting the needs in our community. Joining an event with a themed concert is a unique and meaningful way to pay it forward, while making a real difference.

Our first event is scheduled for Friday evening February 10, 2017 at the New Riff Distillery in Newport, KY. This debut event: La nourriture (French for food, feed, nourishment, feeding, eating, sustenance), will feature songs about love of life, food and drinks. The 50 minute concert will be followed by a social time with an hors d'oeuvres buffet, and drinks. The ticket price will include the concert, food and a drink. A cash bar is also available if additional drinks are desired.

Proceeds from this event will go to support La Soupe, a non- profit organization that partners with Kroger, Jungle Jim's, and various local organic farms to produce soups from produce that might otherwise go to waste. Sales of the meals made from these rich ingredients support La Soupe's mission to provide food to some of Cincinnati's food-deprived individuals.

We are sending you this letter to tell you about this wonderful new chorus, our mission, and our debut event. To do these great things, we need your support! We would greatly appreciate your donation to help us work together to address some of this great work in our community.

The great news is that a donor has stepped forward and will match donations from you up to $10,000. This is an incredible gift of which I hope you will help us take full advantage.

Please consider giving your end of the year tax deductible donation to FLUIDITY - a Creative Choral Community for a Cause. Send donations to: FLUIDITYcccc

Or, you may go to our website at fluiditycccc.org and click on the donate button. No amount is too small to help us give back.

I continue to be grateful for music in our world especially when we can sing to heal and help others. Thank you for being a part of our vision.

Warm regards,

Rhonda Juliano, Artistic Director/Founder
